

Agenda Workshop

BRUSSELS, 21st October 2021

EU minimum harmonised training for veterinary surgeons – time for an update?

09:30-09:45	Keynote Speech DG GROW - European Commission.
09:45-10:15	Presentation of the study on mapping and assessment of developments for sectoral professions under Directive 2005/36/EC – the Profession of Veterinary Surgeons Spark Legal Network.
10:15-10:30	Q&A
10:30-11:45	Speaker presentations and Panel discussion: Impact of scientific and technical advancements on professional training of veterinary surgeons in light of study results Moderated by Prof. Pieter Brama (Key veterinary expert) <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Mr Stéphane Martinot - President of the European Association of Establishments for Veterinary Education (EAEVE);2. Ms Despoina Iatridou - Senior Policy Officer at Federation of Veterinarians of Europe (FVE);3. Mr Cristophe Buhot - French National Union of Veterinary Practitioners (SNVEL);4. Mr Ožbalt Podpečan - President of the Veterinary Chamber of Slovenia (VZbSi)5. Mr Jimmy Saunders - Head of Department at University of Ghent
11:45-12:15	Q&A
12:15-13:00	Lunch Break (Networking)
13:00-14:00	Breakout sessions: Scientific and technical advancements – need for an update of the EU minimum harmonised training? What is possible within the limits of the Commission’s delegated power under Directive 2005/36/EC? <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Topic 1 (moderated by Spark Legal Network):

	Scientific advancements: focus on 1) Veterinary practice & transdisciplinarity (Life-long learning and specialisation; Veterinary Ethics and Legislation; One Health, Sustainability and Transdisciplinary practice; Inter/multidisciplinary and soft skills); and 2) Pharmaceutical & Therapeutic Developments (Treatments and therapies), and related subjects, knowledge and skills (and linked competences). 2. Topic 2 (moderated by Spark Legal Network): Scientific advancements: focus on 1) Health promotion and disease prevention (Animal health and welfare; Public health, hygiene and food safety; Disease prevention and control); and 2) Diagnostics (Biology; Immunology, Pathology and Physiology), and related subjects, knowledge and skills (and linked competences). 3. Topic 3 (moderated by Spark Legal Network): Technical advancements: focus on 1) EHealth (Digitalisation and digital data); and 2) Techniques and devices (Diagnostic and laboratory tools and techniques).
14:00 -14:30	Coffee Break (Networking)
14:30-15:00	Concluding plenary session Moderated by Prof. Pieter Brama (Key veterinary expert): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Presentation of the outcomes of the breakout sessions. 2. Wrap up by DG GROW, European Commission.
15:00	End of the workshop